

Please make sure competition is not stifled! I am an avid listener to NPR and our local radio WTOP and use the weather/traffic channel on XM when I need to get an immediate report. It doesn't make listening to local channels less important. I still need local and national news from WTOP and my daily feed from NPR.